Robert & Bianca Emery

We had the gender reveal of the baby. Bianca made a cake but didn't do the filling. We got the Dr to write down the gender in secret. Then we gave a friend to the note without looking. Of course, Bianca's mother had prior knowledge. So when we cut the cake we saw the colour was blue. We were shocked as we were expecting a girl. We are very happy nonetheless! His name is Eliah Santiago Emery Arenis.

NEWSLETTER

For those of you who follow Robert on Social Media, there are some drastic changes. As we've mentioned in the previous newsletter, the target audience is now Spanish speaking so content Instagram, TikTok and YouTube for MisionEmery will all be Spanish with English subtitles for most videos and reels. Facebook will be in both languages. X (Twitter) will be in English only to serve as a page for advertising books. There will be reels sent every Friday. Feel free to check them out.

Also, as previously mentioned Robert is in the process of writing a new book called, 'Ignorance is bliss: And it's killing us! - Observations of dangers that threaten the modern western church.' As controversial the title is, the target audience is church leaders, preachers, pastors, laymen, clergy, youth leaders and anyone that serves or leads in any way at a local church. It's a book that talks about spiritual warfare and ignorance in the Western Christian church as it relates to this battle we' re in. It's currently being test read by about 15 people and we are working on the cover design. When it is available on 10th November we will send you all the Amazon link. If anybody doesn't have the means to buy but would still be interested in a book, we would be happy to send you free copies – provided that you actually read it. This book is not like the other books previously written by Robert. This book has less chapters and goes more in depth. It covers topics such as spiritual warfare, thoughts about what real mission is according to the Bible, an in-depth look at Islam and much more.

TITLE

On the 3rd June we went up to see if Robert's visa had been ready (We have been waiting for this since January. To our amazement it is finally ready. So we travelled up to Caracas the Capital. However, we had to be very careful because Bianca was 25 weeks pregnant Robert had to do the heavy work. While we were in Caracas we took the opportunity to buy stuff for the house and to get some clothes for our little boy, we also bought a pushchair. We were told to come back to the visa centre at

Robert plans to visit the UK for a couple of weeks August/September 2025 depending on when Eliah is born. This will be for a number of reasons. Not the least, to Apostil his Bible College certificates and have them officiated by the government. He will possibly make an Itinery to visit Brighton and Hove, Burgess Hill and Chatham. He'll not be in the UK very long. but he will be popping by to visit some of you among other things.

2:30pm. While on the way back to the visa centre we were stuck in the metro system of Caracas for over an hour. We arrived at the visa centre too late and were told we had to come back the following day. Now, because it would be too dangerous for Robert to travel without any documentation or proof he had the legal right to stay in Venezuela. So we checked into a hotel for the night and picked up the visa the following day. This visa is from May 2024 – May 2025. As soon as Eliah is born, we'll apply for British citizenship.
